Administrative Reports

A. Director’s Report – Mr. Dave Reinbold, Administrative Director

a. A.J. Burke, Culinary Arts Instructor – The Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College
   a. Chef Burke shared that last school year was an excellent year for his students. He added more guest speakers and additional field trips to the curriculum. He is already planning for the same this year with trips planned to Sysco Foods and The Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College in Philadelphia, among others. He said that this year he intends to place more emphasis on nutrition and action stations.
   b. This summer nine of his Culinary Arts students took advantage of an opportunity to attend The Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College for a 2- (students going into their junior year) or 3- (students going into their senior year) day summer program. Chef Burke said that he and his Pastry Chef/Instructional Aide Ashleigh Papay attended a dinner celebration/graduation at the completion of the event. He said that some of the feedback he received from the students in attendance was that they wished it was longer, they want to attend again next year, and they’d like to visit the college again during the upcoming school year. While at the summer camp, students stayed in dorm rooms and were given a glimpse of the real college experience. Two of the students who attended were present to speak at this evening’s meeting:
      i. Jacqueline Cisterna (incoming senior, Jim Thorpe ASD) gave a brief overview of the events of the 3 days she attended starting with a family breakfast, receiving a uniform to wear, and photos which were presented to the student on the last day. She said she learned new techniques, was given the opportunity to meet new people and stated that the chefs and their assistants were all great. While attending, they made pastries, appetizers, and a giant pizza among other items. They participated in other activities such as a tour of Philadelphia, a trip on a cruise ship, and dinner at Dave and Buster’s. She would certainly consider going to school there after graduation as the teachers and food were both amazing. She plans to utilize the new skills she obtained during the upcoming school year at CCTI.
ii. Avante Aybar (incoming junior, Lehighton ASD) attended the 2-day camp and shared that they were each given an apron, a pastry hat, a lanyard, and a booklet (containing many recipes). They too began their visit with a family breakfast and then moved onto either pastries or culinary (switching to the other on the 2nd day). He shared some of the added activities in which they partook such as creating “cookie jars” filled with ingredients to prepare baked cookies, decorating cookies, painting a pot in which to later plant flowers, and a spice station (to create mixed spices). His group also dined at Dave and Buster’s. He would like to attend the summer camp again next year.

iii. Chef Burke shared that among others this past school year, some of the guest speakers were a professional butcher from Schiff’s, a professional ice sculptor, dieticians from St. Like’s Hospital, and a fellow Chef to share how to make pizza dough in CCTI’s newly acquired mixer. YouTube videos of these events may be found on the Video page of our school website.

iv. Ms. Fallow commended Chef Burke on sharing the many opportunities the Culinary Arts has to offer its students beyond cooking or baking such as the health care industry, butchers, etc.

b. Kevin Kuehner, SkillsUSA Advisor and Ms. Tammy Marshall, SkillsUSA Assistant Advisor - SkillsUSA National Leadership and Skills Conference

   a. Mr. Kuehner introduced Jenna Berry (2018 CCTI graduate, Lehighton ASD), one of the 5 gold medalists from the recent National competition. Jenna competed on a team of three with classmates Alyssa Parramore (2018 CCTI graduate, Jim Thorpe ASD) and McKenzie DaCosta (2018 CCTI graduate, Lehighton ASD) and spoke of her personal experience. Jenna shared that this trip was filled with many firsts for her and many of the other nine attending from CCTI. Some including her, had never flown before. Jenna said she had never been in a fancy hotel before. On top of the fantastic experience working with her fellow students, creating their topic and presentation, and educating many people along the way (their topic was malnutrition – the first 1,000 days, from birth through age 1) the trip itself was fantastic. She said she and her teammates worked well together and received a lot of support from their Health Medical teacher. She was able to make friends with students from other states and enjoyed the experience of getting the word out on their topic. Jenna said that the awards ceremony was awesome and was amazed at how many people were in attendance at the event. In answer to Ms. Fallow’s question, Jenna believed her team competed against approximately 15-20 other teams in her event. Jenna shared that she currently is working as a CNA at The Summit Nursing Home. In August she will attend LCCC for her LPN and then will go on to achieve her RN. She plans to one day work in pediatrics or with cancer patients. Because she is employed by St. Luke’s, her tuition is paid. Ms. Fallow said that it sounded like the students learned a lot more than just the topic of their competition. This was obviously a very worthwhile experience for all. Mr. Kuehner shared as an example that Jakson Ring received a check for $500 just for attending the National event. A $500 check will be sent to the school as well to put toward the training program. Jakson will also receive a check in the amount of $4,500 for placing 1st at Nationals. A $10,000 scholarship to the Pennsylvania College of Technology was among his winnings for placing 1st at the State level.

   b. Mr. Reinbold added that NASCAR driver Brad Keselowski spoke at the Opening ceremonies with Mike Rowe speaking in front of approximately 17,000 people at the Closing ceremonies. He would like the medal winners to come back to the school in the fall for a presentation with the student body to acknowledge their achievement and also get more students excited and involved with SkillsUSA.

c. Other gold medal winners were Jakson Ring (2018 CCTI graduate, Palmerton ASD) and Lynzi Binder (2018 CCTI graduate, Lehighton ASD). Derbe Stroup (2018 CCTI graduate, Palmerton ASD) qualified with only 20 other students for WorldSkills and will be traveling to Russia in August of 2019. Mr. Kuehner shared that Derbe has been assigned to an advisor, a CEO from a company in Chicago, IL. Derbe will travel all over the country, including Japan for training. He will be given a debit card to cover his expenses. Derbe currently works for BTM, Inc. and his employer Nancy Beers is fully on board and perfectly fine with him missing work for this fantastic opportunity. Derbe and his fellow WorldSkills competitors will endure “Olympic-like” training for this event. 72 countries will be competing at WorldSkills. The Joint Operating Committee will speak regarding the availability of funds to help incur some of the expenses necessary to allow Mr. Kuehner to attend this event with Derbe.

d. Mr. Kuehner said that SkillsUSA is such a fantastic opportunity for students to showcase their skills. He said that it’s a shame that more individuals in the public aren’t educated on the opportunities technical schools have to offer – the employability skills are phenomenal. He expressed what a huge accomplishment this was for these students. When asked, Mr. Kuehner shared that this was his 5th year taking Precision Machine students to Nationals. He said that to be a good machinist you need to take pride in your work and like what you do. Ms. Fallow said that it is no coincidence that he has taken students to Nationals five years in a row. It is not just the caliber if student, it is clearly the teacher, as well. Mr. Kuehner thanked the Joint Operating Committee for their support and allowing the students to go. He also thanked his assistant advisors Ms. Marshall, Mrs. Reinbold, and Ms. Graver. Ms. Marshall, present at the meeting spoke briefly sharing her experience with the students through Districts and States. She said we get to learn from these students as they get to learn from us. She enjoys watching them grow through the process. Ms. Graver added what a fulfilling experience her advisorship was. She attributed that to her fellow advisors as well as the participating students. She said that as advisors we do just that, we advise, we lead, we guide, we assist in any possible way that we can but it is the student who puts in the hard work and dedication to achieve great heights at the competitions. She again congratulated Jenna and the other competitors. Mr. Holland reiterated Mr. Reinbold’s suggestion to have the National competitors come back to speak to the student body in the fall. He said they should challenge their fellow students to do as well as or better than they have. Ms. Fallow added that she is a cheerleader for CCTI. She said its reputation is strong and is getting stronger in the community. More and more people are understanding the benefits and opportunities a technical school provides. She said she is very proud.
