	<ol style="list-style-type: none">3. In order to maintain a free and strong country, our civic obligation to the community, commonwealth and nation is to maintain free and strong public schools in the United States of America, without surrendering our responsibilities to any other person, group or organization.4. Joint Operating Committees share responsibility for ensuring a “thorough and efficient system of public education” as required by the Pennsylvania Constitution.5. Our fellow residents have entrusted us with the advocacy for and stewardship of the education of the youth of this community.6. The public expects that our first and greatest priority is to provide equitable educational opportunities for all youth. b. Accordingly: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The community should be provided with information about its schools and be engaged by the Joint Operating Committee and staff to encourage input and support for the school system.2. Devoting time, thought and study to our duties and responsibilities as Joint Operating Committee members is critical for rendering effective and credible service.3. Joint Operating Committee members should work together in a spirit of harmony, respect and cooperation, despite differences of opinion.4. Personal decisions should be based upon all sufficient facts, we should vote our honest conviction without partisan bias, and we will abide by and uphold the majority decision of the Joint Operating Committee.5. Individuals have no legal authority outside the meetings of the Joint Operating Committee, and should conduct their relationships with all stakeholders and media on this basis.6. We will not use our positions as Joint Operating Committee members to benefit ourselves or any individual or agency.7. Joint Operating Committees must balance their responsibility to provide educational programs with the need to be effective stewards of public resources.8. We should recognize that the primary responsibility of the Joint Operating Committee is to adopt policies by which the schools are to be administered.
