SECTION: PROGRAMS

TITLE: HOMEBOUND INSTRUCTION

ADOPTED: June 19, 2003

REVISED: April 20, 2006, November 21, 2024

117. HOMEBOUND INSTRUCTION
1. Authority SC 1329 Title 22 Sec. 11.25	The Joint Operating Committee shall provide, pursuant to law and regulations, individual instruction to students confined to home or hospital for physical disability, illness, injury, urgent reasons, or when such confinement is recommended for psychological or psychiatric reasons.
2. Delegation of Responsibility Title 22 Sec. 11.25 SC 2510.1	The Administrative Director shall be responsible to develop procedures to implement this policy, including the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The school shall secure suitable, certified homebound instructors, with preference given to existing staff members. 2. All homebound instruction shall be preapproved by the Joint Operating Committee in accordance with school attendance policy governing temporary nonattendance. 3. Homebound instruction may be provided to a student for a period not to exceed three (3) months. The school may request approval from the PA Department of Education for an extension, which shall be evaluated every three (3) months. 4. The school shall be reimbursed for homebound instruction, provided the student is counted for attendance purposes as if in school. 5. All assignments and report card grades shall be coordinated by the student's assigned academic and/or career and technical teachers. 6. The school fully recognizes and accepts the fact that many career and technical instructional experiences are practical in nature and cannot be duplicated in a homebound setting. Therefore, homebound instruction may not fully duplicate the normal instructional program.
3. Guidelines	Application for homebound instruction shall certify (by a physician) the nature of the illness or disability and state the probable duration of the confinement.

The program of homebound instruction provided to each student shall be in accordance with the standards established by the state.

The Joint Operating Committee reserves the right to withhold homebound instruction when:

1. The instructor's presence in the place of a student's confinement presents a hazard to the health of the teacher.
2. A parent/guardian or other adult in authority is not at home with the student during the hours of instruction.
3. The condition of the student is such as to preclude any benefit from such instruction.
